Who is the Degree for?

If you are a manager or aspiring manager working in retail and would like to improve your skills and career prospects, then this programme is for you.

Our Degree offers individuals who have a drive and passion for retail the opportunity to excel in their career. Graduates typically move into more skilled or fulfilling roles and are often promoted or awarded a salary increase as a result of achieving their degree qualification.

HAVE YOU GOT WHAT IT TAKES?

We are delighted to support individuals working in retail by subsidising 50% of the degree fees required. We pay €1,500 and you pay €1,500 per year.

How does it work?

1. The main benefit of undertaking this Degree is that it allows you to work normal hours whilst gaining your qualification.
2. It is delivered over a 3-year period in our Dublin location.
3. Fees can be paid by either you or your employer
4. You will be required to attend just 16 class-based days per year – an average of two days per month (normally Tuesdays and Wednesdays between September and May with no class during busy retail months such as December and January).
5. Learning through your own workplace is a central part of this Degree Work based assessments allows you to apply real-world business scenarios to your projects where possible.

We know that it can be challenging returning to study whilst balancing work and family life, Retail Ireland Skillnet are there to support you throughout your learning journey with both payment plans and learning supports available.

What will I learn?

The degree is comprised of a core set of modules covering a wide range of the retail disciplines required by a retail manager.

Student Testimonials

What would your message be to anyone thinking of starting this Degree?

“I would wholeheartedly recommend the degree to anyone looking to improve their skills and career prospects. It offered me the best work life balance and helped build a strong foundation for understanding and growth within my career.”

Nathalie O'Connor, Student of the Year 2019 and Area Manager at Hickeys Pharmacy.

“The degree has improved my attitude and has broadened my scope to give a more rounded view on my job. For me the interaction between classmates was the best part. I would say to anyone thinking of starting this degree to go for it!”

Kevin O'Leary, 2019 Graduate and Assistant Store Manager

“I would absolutely recommend the degree to employers in small stores as well as bigger organisations. Where bigger organisations may have extra support in place, smaller businesses need opportunities like this.”

Yvonne Daly, Student of the Year 2018. Manager of Spar and Mother of 4

“Do it! If you're 18 or 60 it doesn't really matter, if you work in retail and are enjoying it and not already studying, jump at the opportunity and who knows where it will take you in your career.”

Craig Burrowes, Current Final Year Student & Team Leader. Woodies
